

Professional Development Unit (PDU)

What are PDUs?

Professional Development Units (PDUs) are one-hour blocks of time that you spend learning, teaching others, or volunteering. By accumulating and tracking these over your certification cycle you can maintain your certification status with PMI.

PMI certifications have different requirements based on the number of PDUs for maintenance

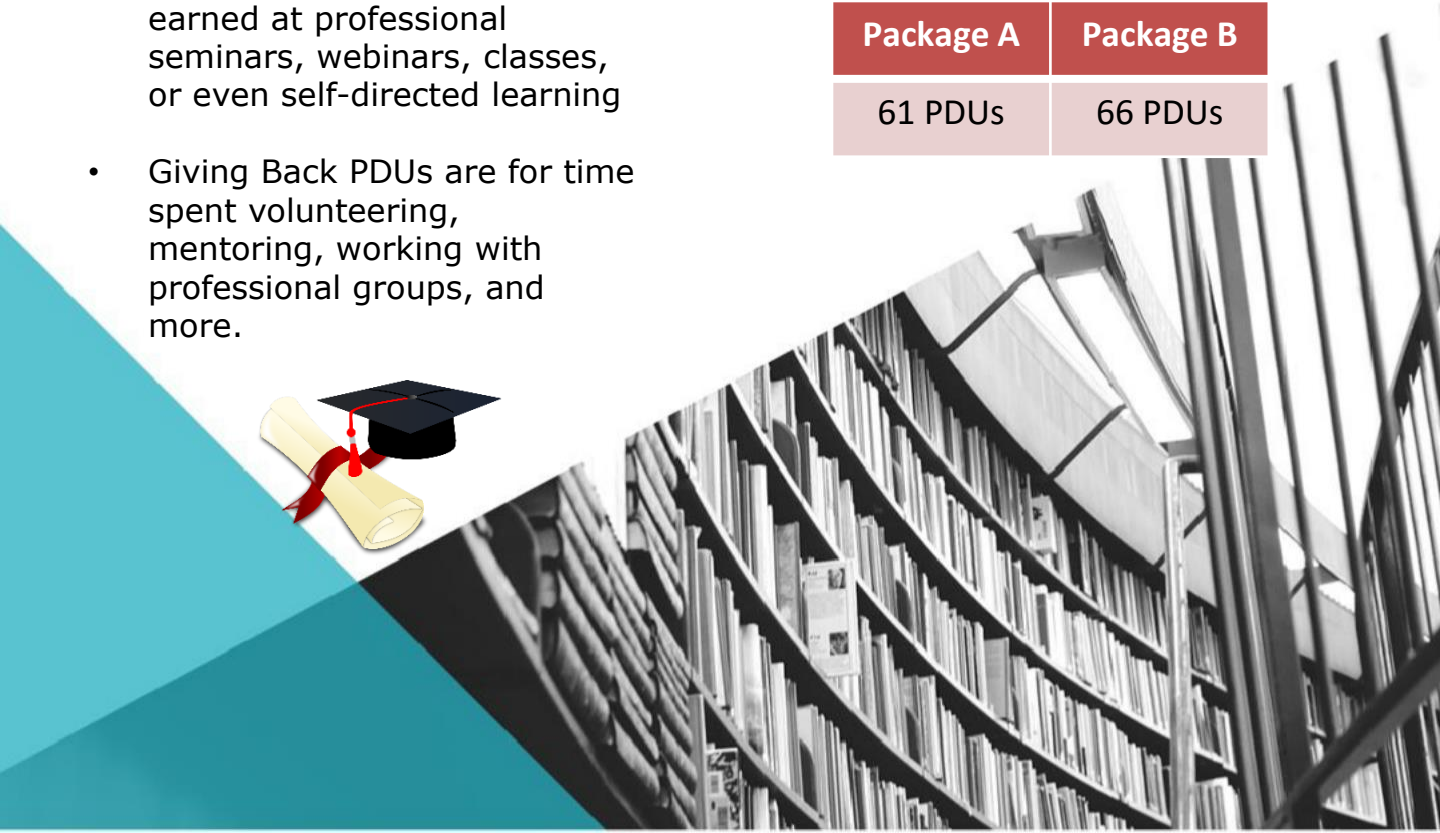

PMI Certification	PDUs requires to maintain certificate
Project Management Professional (PMP), Program Management Professional (PgMP), Portfolio Management Professional (PfMP) Professional in Business Analysis (PMI-PBA)	60 PDUs in 3-year cycle
Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM)	15 PDUs in a 3-year cycle
Agile Certified Practitioner (PMI-ACP), Risk Management Professional (PMI-RMP), Scheduling Professional (PMI-SP)	30 PDUs in 3-year cycle

Ways to earn PDUs

- Education PDUs can be earned at professional seminars, webinars, classes, or even self-directed learning
- Giving Back PDUs are for time spent volunteering, mentoring, working with professional groups, and more.
